Images were disgusting

To the editor:

I would like to add my name to the list of people who believe that the pro-life demonstrators on Monday crossed the line of good taste. The images of aborted babies on their posters were deplorable.

They had no consideration for children who saw the posters.

Where was the morality squad?

If this would have been a group of protesters with photographs of women in the buff, the morality squad would have been out in full force.
